NSW Award Winner Profile:

PORT STEPHENS STRATA
Part of the Strata Plus group

This year SCA (NSW) introduced a few new awards categories into the 2017 CHU Strata Community Awards, one of which was Support Team Member.

The first-time winner of this award was Amberly Keating who works for Port Stephens Strata a division of Strata Plus.

Amberly is the Operations Manager and works across the Port Stephens and Newcastle offices. We spoke to her just after her win to find out about her, what she does, how she works and the effect the award has had. Click here to read about Amberly Keating.

Smart Green Apartments News:

Generating Financial Savings for Owners Corporations

Smart Green Apartments is a free program providing tailored energy, water and waste assessments to high rise residential buildings - resulting in deep cuts to energy and water bills and a drastic reduction of carbon emissions. Energy assessments for the current round have identified average savings of 35% or $57,000 per building per annum.

NSW Fair Trading announces Fire Safety Reforms

NSW Fair Trading has announced a fire safety reforms packaged which it says will make people feel safer in their homes.

The Minister for Better Regulation and Innovation, Matt Kean said in a media release that legislation would be introduced to prohibit the sale and use of unsafe building products.

“This package will protect consumers from building products that are inherently dangerous or that are being advertised for use in a way that makes them dangerous,” he said.

A ten-part plan also accompanies this announcement which can be found in the full media release here.

Of relevance to members are the plans to identifying buildings that might have aluminium or other cladding; creating a new fire safety declaration that will require high rise residential buildings to inform state and local governments as well as NSW Fire and Rescue if their building has cladding on it; and expediting reforms to toughen up the regulation of building certifiers.

NSW Government establishes Taskforce

NSW Fair Trading advises that the Government has established a Fire Safety and External Wall Cladding Taskforce which has developed an action plan to prioritise and address fire safety requirements for residential buildings, including dealing with fire safety risks associated with external wall cladding.

Fair Trading advises that the “taskforce performs an expert and advisory function and is working with the Federal Government, local councils and industry”.

On 28 July, the priorities of the Taskforce were announced and they can be found here along with additional information.

Victorian Government establishes Taskforce

Hugh McCormack, Director of McCormacks Strata Management has four buildings participating in the current round. "Across our portfolio, we're saving more than $500,000 per annum as a result of the Smart Green Apartments program. Apart from the savings, it's a fantastic community engagement tool for our residents and owners, leading to a real sense of pride in the building," Mr McCormack said. "Not only do the savings add up, but the value of the property increases as purchasers increasingly seek out sustainable, low cost living."

Applications for the next round are open 7 August - 15 September www.smartgreenapartments.com.au

London's Grenfell Tower: Early lessons

A news article here has reported that corporate manslaughter charges may be brought against several parties in relation to the recent tragic Grenfell Tower fire in London.

The London Metropolitan Police have stated that Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea and the Kensington and Chelsea and Tenant Management Organisation may each face the charges.

We will continue to monitor this story and report when there is information relevant to SCA (NSW) members.

Remember: Have your say on Short-Term Letting

Last week we advised members that the NSW Government had released its 'Short-term holiday letting in NSW' options paper. Click here for more information from the NSW Fair Trading website.

SCA (NSW) will be preparing a submission and we welcome members input. Don't forget to send your contributions by COB Friday, 29 September 2017 to Rachel Lynn, SCA (NSW) General Manager at rachel.lynn@strata.community

Our response will be co-ordinated from your contributions into one paper from SCA NSW). All papers are due to the Government by 31 October 2017.

2017/18 SCA (NSW) Membership Renewal

SCA (NSW) Membership Renewals were due on 1 July 2017. You would have received a letter from us asking you to renew and pay your membership fee.

If you haven't received your membership renewal letter and invoice please contact Ashleigh Newell,

The Victorian Government has also established a taskforce, which is charged with the job of testing flammable cladding.

The taskforce's mandate is the inspection of thousands of apartment blocks built in the last 12 years. SCA (Vic) supports this but has also sought an expansion so that instead of inspections focusing on just one material, it says all potential flammable materials should be tested.

Strata History to be Captured

This book will tell the story of the Strata Title Industry from 1961, when the first ground breaking strata legislation was passed in NSW, until the present day. SCA (NSW) is pleased to announce that it is collaborating with Express Glass' John Coleman to produce a book outlining the history of SCA (NSW) and the ISTM as it was first known.

John Coleman will be carrying out all the research of minutes; newspapers; books; and archives as well as interviewing of present and past SCA (NSW) members.

If you have any information; photos; documents etc, which you feel would be useful to John's research, or if you would like to discuss the project, please feel free to contact John on 0413 055 969 or by email :johnc@expressglass.com.au
