SCA(NSW) Proxy Vote - Notes

Note1 - The instrument appointing the proxy must be deposited at the registered office of SCA (NSW) not less than 48 hours before the time of commencement of the meeting in accordance to the notice of meeting, that is, by 4:30pm, Monday 22nd November.

Note2 - An instrument appointing a proxy confers authority on the proxy to demand and to join in demanding a poll.

Note3 - A person who is entitled to vote and whose estate has been vested in a trustee or another representative because of unsoundness of mind may vote by that trustee or representative. That trustee or representative him/her self may vote in person or by proxy.

Note 4 - Subject to Clause 64 of the Constitution, a vote cast by a properly appointed proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the death or disability of the appointing member or the revocation of the appointment, unless notice in writing of the death, disability or revocation is received by the Chairman or Secretary of the Company before the commencement of the meeting or, in the case of a vote cast by the proxy after the resumption of an adjourned meeting, before the resumption of the meeting.
