

Emily Doherty

Emily is the Chief Executive officer of Bright & Duggan Property Group and has been a proactive member of the strata industry for 16 years. She spent the decade prior at Smarter Communities across a variety of senior leadership roles.

Emily holds the position of Vice President of SCA (NSW) and was appointed to the Board of Directors in 2019. She is an active member of the professional Standards Scheme taskforce, Professional Conduct and Oversight Committee, and the NSW Risk and Finance Committee.

In addition to her Board and committee roles, Emily supports the strata industry through her involvement with the NSW Government's Office of the Building Commissioner. She currently sits on the committee for Pillar 6 - responsible for collating research and data for defects for Class 2 buildings.

At Smarter Communities Group, as State Manager and Licensee-in-Charge, NSW and SA, Emily was responsible for the five Strata Title Management's (STM) offices and Adelaide Strata and Community Management in South Australia.
