

Kirsten Terry

Kirsten Terry sits on the SCA board and is Chair of the SCA (NSW) Education sub-committee and as well as a member of the SCA National Education Advisory Board. She is the Executive General Manager, People, Culture and Customer Experience for PICA Group, one of Australia's largest property and financial services companies.

Kirsten has 20 years of experience in Human Resources - as a specialist Recruitment, Remuneration and Benefits and Human Resource Information Systems (HRIS); and as an HR Generalist and leader. Her career has spanned Australia, the UK and the US for large companies such as Amazon.com, Christies, AstraZeneca, Boehringer Ingelheim and Knight Frank. She also holds a Bachelor of Commerce.

In her roles with SCA (NSW) her focus is on education offerings, establishing pathways from school and tertiary institutions through to the strata industry.

Kirsten is passionate about people and culture, reflected in her long professional dedication, and the planet, which she supports regularly in her donations to Greenpeace and other community causes.
