

Geoffrey Linders

Geoff holds the position of Non Executive Chairman of the Strata Choice Group and brings over 20 years of industry expertise. With a background in both supplier and strata management areas, his experience has developed a valuable skill set of both practical and technical knowledge, covering both client and corporate asset management, contract management, and staff compliance management and training.

Geoff is currently working closely with SCA National to align all state awards. He is Chair of the Professional Conduct and Oversight Committee and also sits on the Risk and Finance Committee.

He holds multiple directorships and company secretary positions for various companies and holds a Graduate qualification with the Australian Institute of Company Directors and maintains this via the Director Professional Development programme.

Outside of the office, Geoff enjoys playing football and is also an avid car enthusiast attending and participating in car shows and motorsport events.
